PPN e-news

From this edition, the PPN e-news will change from a bi-monthly edition to a monthly edition. The next edition will be published on the 6th July.

Community Safety Booklet

The Joint Policing Committee, Age Friendly County and the PPN have come together to produce a South Dublin County Community Safety Booklet. You can download the booklet from our website in full design, plain text and screen reader friendly formats.

Public Service Announcements

Artists and Activists summer camp at Glenree 17/18 June.

The aim of the Camp in 2017 is to build bridges because we know that the experience of one can be of help to the other. Are you an activist/artist or leader who is working deeply with the people, place and the environment? Do you want to shape a new initiative and exchange focused on communities in transition?

Healthy South Dublin County

We recently emailed you about a communications review been undertaken by Healthy South Dublin County asking you to assist them in identifying ways in which it could communicate better, by completing a short survey. If you have already completed the survey, thank you very much. However, if you have not yet done so, could you please complete it before it closes at 5pm tomorrow, Friday, 9th June 2017. This should take no more than five minutes of your time.

You can access the survey online.

National Transport Authority (NTA) - online consultation

The NTA has launched the Dublin Area Bus Network Redesign Choices Report and they are seeking the public’s views on the issues raised in the Report and, in particular, on the possible strategies that could be implemented in the redesign of the bus network. An online web survey is available and the responses to the survey will be used to inform the network redesign process which will produce a detailed Network Review Report that will be published later this year. Submissions should be made before 5pm on Friday 7th July.
